Privacy Policy of the Unigrid Foundation

1. Overview

The security and protection of personal data is one of the top priorities of the Unigrid Foundation and its affiliates (below ”the Foundation”, “us”, “we” or “our”). This privacy policy applies to information collected, used, or shared with the Foundation when you use or access our websites, sign up for information updates or use other services or tools provided by the Foundation.

This Privacy Policy details the conditions at which the Foundation may collect, keep, use and save information that relates to you. It also details the choices that you have in relation to the collection, use and disclosure of your personal data. The Unigrid Foundation is the data processor and all contact information can be found in section 13.

We collect, process and use your personal data in accordance with this Privacy Policy, the General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”) and the Swedish act containing supplementary provisions to the EU General Data Protection Regulation (SFS 2018:218)

If you provide us with the personal data of third persons you should make sure that these persons are familiar with this Privacy Policy, that you have their permission to share their personal data and ensure that their personal data is correct.

In appendix 1 you find the Cookie Policy of the Unigrid Foundation.

2. Scope

This Privacy Policy describes our procedures regarding the processing and disclosure of personal data collected by the Foundation while you are using the Foundation website(s), services or tools provided by the Foundation.

3. Acceptance

By using the Foundation website(s), services or tools, whatever the method or medium used, you acknowledge that the Foundation may collect and process your personal data, that you agree, that you have read and understood this Privacy Policy and agree to comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

4. Collection and use of data

The Foundation may use your personal data for various purposes. We may collect personal data to enable you to enjoy and easily navigate the website(s), use other tools or services, to keep a list of the users who list as members of the upcoming community organization or related to your use of services and tools we provide. If you contact us via email, we will keep a record of that correspondence.

The Foundation may collect and use personal data in the following ways (non exhaustive list):

- When you browse the website(s) the Foundation may collect cookies. For information about our use of cookies, please refer to our cookie policy, to be found at www.unigridfoundation.se.
- When you subscribe to our information update, we may collect your IP address and your email address for the sole purpose of sending you our information updates.
- When you use other tools or services provided by the Foundation.

The Foundation may also, for example, use your personal data to:

- answer questions and comments
- communicate with you
- send you information and updates
- manage account information
- process transactions
- complete registrations for events
- enforce the Terms and Conditions posted at www.unigridfoundation.se or other Terms and Conditions that you have agreed to
- comply with legal requirements
- as otherwise described to you at the time of collection of your data
- process personal data via Google Analytics

You are entitled to unsubscribe from our information updates whenever you want and at your sole discretion by contacting us in accordance with Section 13 of this Privacy Policy.

5. International transfer of personal data

If cross-border transfer is made to third parties outside of Sweden and the European Union ("EU"), such third parties are obligated to protect data privacy to the same extent as we do. If the level of data protection in a given country does not correspond to the Swedish and European data protection level, we contractually ensure that the protection of your personal data corresponds to that in Sweden and the EU at all times.

6. Your Rights regarding your data

6.1 Right to confirmation

You have the right to obtain confirmation from the Foundation as to whether or not personal data concerning you is being processed. If you wish to avail yourself of this right of confirmation, you may contact the data processor as stated in section 1 of this Privacy Policy.

6.2 Right to access

You have the right to obtain free information about your personal data stored. You also have the right to a copy of this information. Furthermore, you will have access to the following information:

- the purposes of the processing
- the categories of personal data concerned
- the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed
- where possible, the envisaged period for which the personal data will be stored, or, if not possible, the criteria used to determine that period
- the existence of the right to request rectification or erasure of personal data, or restriction of processing of personal data concerning you, or to object to such processing
- the existence of the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority
- where the personal data are not collected directly from you, any available information as to their source; and
- the existence of automated decision-making, including profiling, referred to in Article 22 of the GDPR and, at least in those cases, meaningful information about the logic involved, as well as the significance and envisaged consequences of such processing for you.

If you wish to avail yourself of this right of access, you may at any time contact the data processor as stated in section 1 of this Privacy Policy.

6.3 Right to rectification

You have the right to obtain the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning you. Taking into account the purposes of the processing, you shall have the right to have incomplete personal data completed. If you wish to exercise this right to rectification, you may contact the data processor as stated in section 1 of this Privacy Policy.

6.4 Right to erasure (right to be forgotten)

You have the right to obtain the erasure of personal data concerning you as soon as possible, and the Foundation shall have the obligation to erase personal data without undue delay where one of the following grounds applies:

- The personal data is no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed
- You withdraw consent to which the processing is based according to point (a) of Article 6(1) of the GDPR, or point (a) of Article 9(2) of the GDPR, and where there is no other legal ground for the processing
- The data subject objects to the processing pursuant to Article 21(1) of the GDPR and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing, or the data subject objects to the processing pursuant to Article 21(2) of the GDPR
- The personal data has been unlawfully processed
- The personal data must be erased for compliance with a legal obligation in accordance with the applicable law to which the Foundation is subject; and/or

- The personal data has been collected in relation to the offer of information society services referred to in Article 8(1) of the GDPR.

If any one of the aforementioned reasons applies, and you wish to request the erasure of personal data stored by the Foundation, you may at any time contact the data processor as stated in section 1 of this Privacy Policy. The data processor shall promptly ensure that the erasure request is complied with as soon as possible.

6.5 Right to restriction of processing

You have the right to obtain restriction of processing where one of the following applies:

- The accuracy of the personal data is contested by you, for a period enabling the Foundation to verify the accuracy of the personal data
- The processing is unlawful and you oppose the erasure of the personal data and requests instead the restriction of the use
- The Foundation no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by you for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims; and/or
- The data subject has objected to processing pursuant to Article 21(1) of the GDPR pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the Foundation override those of the data subject.

If any one of the aforementioned conditions is met, and you wish to request the restriction of the processing of personal data stored by the Foundation, you may contact the data processor.

6.6 Right to object

You have the right to object, on grounds relating to your particular situation, to the processing of personal data concerning you, which is based on point (e) or (f) of Article 6(1) of the GDPR. This also applies to profiling based on these provisions. The Foundation shall no longer process the personal data in the event of the objection, unless the Foundation can demonstrate reasonable grounds for the processing, which override the interests, rights and freedoms of you, or for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims. In order to exercise the right to object, you may contact the data processor.

6.7 Automated individual decision-making, including profiling

You have the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling, which produces legal effects concerning you, or similarly significantly affects you, as long as the decision (1) is not necessary for entering into, or the performance of, a contract between you and the Foundation, or (2) is not authorized by the applicable law and which also lays down suitable measures to safeguard your rights and freedoms and legitimate interests, or (3) is not based on your explicit consent. If the decision (1) is necessary for entering into, or the performance of, a contract between you and the Foundation, or (2) it is based on your explicit consent, the Foundation shall implement suitable measures to safeguard your rights and freedoms and legitimate interests.

6.8 Right to data portability

You have the right to receive your personal data, which you have provided to the Foundation, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format. You also have the right to transmit such data to another controller.

6.9 Right to withdraw data protection consent

You have the right to withdraw your consent to processing of your personal data at any time. If you wish to exercise the right to withdraw the consent, you may at any time contact the data processor.

7. Duration of the storage

The Foundation will process and store the personal data only for the period necessary to achieve the purpose of storage, or as far as this is granted by the applicable laws or regulations. If the storage purpose is not applicable, or if a storage period prescribed by the applicable laws expires, the personal data is routinely erased in accordance with the legal requirements.

8. Data security

The Foundation uses appropriate technical and organizational security measures to protect stored personal data against manipulation, partial or complete loss, and unauthorized access. Security measures are continuously being improved in line with technical developments.

9. Third party Disclosure

The Foundation may share your personal data to: any relevant third parties in particular to provide you with our services and tools; if we are requested to do so to comply with a court order or law enforcement authorities request; or if we find it necessary, as determined in the Foundation's sole discretion, to investigate, prevent or take action regarding illegal activities, to defend our interest or as otherwise required or permitted by law.

10. Updates to our Privacy Policy

The Foundation may update this Privacy Policy from time to time and inform you on the website(s) or through other channels of information that the policy has been amended. The current version of the Privacy Policy, as published on our website, is applicable.

11. Minors

The Foundation's website(s), services and tools are not directed to individuals under the age of 18. The Foundation does not knowingly collect or use any personal data from minors. A minor may be able to willingly share personal information with others, depending on the products and/or media channels used. If a minor provides us with their information without the consent of their guardian, we will ask the guardian to contact us for the purpose of deleting that information.

12. More information about privacy regulations

For more information on applicable privacy regulations, you may refer to:

- EU General Data Protection Regulation: EUR-Lex - 32016R0679 - EN - EUR-Lex
- Act containing supplementary provisions to the EU General Data Protection Regulation (SFS 2018:218)

13. Contact details

You may contact us at info@unigridfoundation.se or at Stiftelsen the Unigrid Foundation, c/o Ejwa Hosting AB, Fabriksgatan 13, 412 50 Gothenburg, Sweden if you:

- have questions about this Privacy Policy;
- wish to make a compliance request or have a concern about our handling of your personal data; or
- want to report a possible breach of privacy laws.

Effective as of May 31, 2021

Appendix 1, Cookie Policy of the Unigrid Foundation

Our website(s) may use cookies to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website(s). This Cookie Policy describes how the Unigrid Foundation may use cookies and similar technologies to provide, customize, enhance, promote, and protect our services. More information about the collection and use of your personal data, please read our Privacy Policy. Please note that terms not described in this Cookie Policy may be defined in the Terms of Use and/or Privacy Policy.

By continuing to browse the sites, you are agreeing to our use of cookies, and the terms of this policy ("Cookie Policy").

The Unigrid Foundation may make use of different third-party applications and services to enhance the user's experience. This includes social media platforms or embedded content from platforms such as YouTube etc. As a result, cookies may be determined by such third parties and used by them to track your online activity. The Unigrid Foundation has no direct control over information collected by these cookies.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive. Cookies allow the Unigrid Foundation to store information on the server (for example language preferences, technical information, click or path information, etc.) to help make the web experience better for you and to conduct website analysis. You can block cookies by changing the setting in your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. However, if you use your browser settings to block all cookies (including essential cookies), you may not be able to access all or parts of our sites.

The Foundation may update this Cookie Policy from time to time. When we make changes, we will inform you on the website(s) or through other channels of information and we will update the “Effective Date” at the end of the Cookie Policy.

If you have any questions do not hesitate to contact us at info@unigridfoundation.se

Effective as of September 30 May, 2021